

The Journeyman Portal Access Agreement.

The AYPB Center's Journeyman Portal grants you exclusive access to pertinent resources used to help you on your journey throughout your one-year program. The Portal is intended solely for you and other selected members of the program ONLY. Intimate group discussions will occur throughout the year; therefore, all information housed on the Portal is always to be kept confidential. Using any of the resources for monetary gain or redistribution for purposes outside of its intended use for this program is strictly prohibited. There are specific rules and regulations regarding printing, sharing, and downloading content from the Portal. You will see these rules specified on various pages. Upon returning this agreement, you will be emailed prompts to gain access to the Portal within 24 hours. Sharing your access credentials is also prohibited. Failing to adhere to these requirements may result in immediate removal from this year's program. Your tuition will also not be refunded.

By signing this agreement, I acknowledge that I have read the above specifications and will adhere to them.

Print Name: _____

Signature: _____

Date: _____

Please submit this agreement on the same page in which you have found this document

Achieve Your Personal Best
by pursuing satisfaction in God...